HRH the Crown Princess' engagement

The Crown Princess is patron of the Women Deliver conference 2016 that brings together the world's leading rights activists and opinion leaders in Copenhagen, to share ideas and discuss strategies for how the world can ensure a better life for women and girls. As patron of the United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA) and the Maternity Foundation organization, the Crown Princess has a particular focus on creating awareness of women's and girls' sexual and reproductive health and rights, and on improving maternal health as well as reducing child mortality worldwide. In 2012, the Crown Princess chose to enter the newly established international panel, High Level Task Force on ICPD, which focuses on the global combating of these areas.
